

ПОСТИГНАХМЕ ЖЕЛАН УСПЕХ

На 23.03.2019 г., точно месец след провеждането, в СПГЕ „Джон Атанасов“ се състоя дългоочакваното награждаване на победителите от първото състезание по английски език между професионалните гимназии в София – Challenge 2019.

Самият творчески формат на състезанието беше заредил с очаквания състезатели и гости.

Още във въстъпителните си думи г-н Румен Киряков, регионален директор за София на издателство PEARSON Longman, няколкократно подчерта, че високото ниво на отборите и силната конкуренция са затруднили максимално журито при определянето на призьорите.

Журието класира отборите в три категории: за най-добър английски език, за най-оригинална идея и за най-пълно и комбинативно използване на шестнадесетте изображенията от креативната задача. Моментът на награждаването беше много напрегнат, защото разсекретяването на работата на победителите се извършваше пред всички – при самото награждаване.

Наградата за най-добър английски език получи есето на учениците на ЧПГ „Банкер“.

„Малко неочаквано, но напълно заслужено, отборът на СПГЕ „Джон Атанасов“ грабна най-желаната награда за най-оригинална идея с разказа Time Lost, който публикуваме за всички любопитни на нашия сайт.

Изненадващо най-младият отбор на „СофтУни Светлина“, съставен само от осмокласници, спечели приза за най-комбинативно използване на началните изображения.

Всички отбори получиха сертификати за участие.

'Challenge 2019'

23.03.2019

Наградите за всички победители – най-новото издание на речника на PEARSON Longman – бяха осигурени от нашите партньори и предизвикаха истинска радост у наградените. Наградените училища ще украсят своите кътове на победителите с още една престижна награда – плакет за победител в Challenge 2019. Училищните библиотеки пък ще получат сет подобрани книги, съобразени с професионалната насоченост на всяко конкретно училище.

При получаване на наградите си победителите прочетоха своите текстове и затвърдиха увереността както в отличното качество на подготовката по английски език в професионалните училища, така и в креативните перспективи на самия формат на състезанието.

Оценката за цялостната организация на състезанието от СПГЕ „Джон Атанасов“, която дадоха всички участници и нашите партньори от издателство Pearson Longman, беше изключително висока.

В заключителните си думи към участниците г- жа Полина Костова, директор на нашата гимназия, подчерта, че всички заедно положихме началото на една успешна традиция, и посъветва всички отбори да се готвят отсега за Challenge 2020.

Награждаването завърши с почерпка, осигурена от PEARSON Longman. Участниците имаха възможността в неформален разговор да споделят впечатленията си от преживяването, както и да се опознаят.

В заключение искам да подчертая, без да звучи самохвално, че Challenge 2019 реализира на практика модерните идеи за образование, основано преди всичко на иновативни образователни подходи и стимулиране на творческата активност на учениците, тяхната самовзискателност, отговорност и умения за екипна работа. Всъщност това е идеалът на всяка съвременна образователна система.

Награденият текст на СПГЕ „Джон Атанасов“:

Time Lost

My name is Fine or at least that is how I am referred to as on the Internet. I know that well since that is where I spend the majority of my time. My friends and family always nag me about as they put it, "flawed" lifestyle.

One sleepless night as I was coming back from the bathroom, I entered my room and three gorgeous women stood right in front of me by the bedside. My first instinct was to run. I tried to rush through the door but I found myself locked. In the midst of my panic a calm voice caressed my hearing and relieved me from my senses.

"Calm your heart, my dear. You have nothing to worry about. We're here before you to bring you a deal." – said the one dressed in blue.

I was so scared I couldn't move my limbs or voice my distress but could only stare in awe. And thus she continued.

"I am known as Facebook, although you are already familiar with me" – she smiled lightly.

"To my right stands Instagram. She's going to bestow upon you eternal beauty" – she continued as she waved gracefully towards the lady in the grey dress.

"And to my left is my sister WhatsApp she will grant you all the social interaction you will ever need." – glancing towards the one in green.

"And last but certainly not least I shall give you every friend you would ever want" – she nodded and extended her hand towards me.

Without giving it much thought, I accepted her gesture and shook her hand lightly. The moment that happened everything went pitch black and I found myself lying on my bed with a blinking phone in my hand, alone in my room as per usual.

"What just happened...?" – I whispered under my breath in shock.

Three months later during another mundane morning, I went to the bathroom from my daily photo session.

The circles under my eyes have gotten even darker! The scars on my wrists have gotten even more vivid! And with all the weight I have lost I am almost perfect!!!

I went downstairs to grab some breakfast with my mom however to my surprise my brother wasn't there.

During today's biology class I noticed my favourite teacher was missing too and most shocking to me my best friend as well. I was in a state of trance.

I stormed to the bathroom as there would be the only place I could find comfort in. There I found an old photo of my best friend and I and comparing it to my reflection in the mirror I realized how miserable I had become. In that moment I threw my phone screamed at the top of my lungs for help and so the reflection of the weird sisters from before in the mirror. They had lost all of their grace and beauty and now looked wicked and ugly. I turned to face them but they appeared in their original look, their reflections however were showing their true selves.

“That was not the deal, my dear. Why is your phone in pieces? It is your stupidity that led you to this state” – Facebook smirked.

“I don’t need you anymore.” – and as I uttered those words, the three silhouettes disappeared.

I was calm and collected and had an epiphany – they stole all of my time and now I am going to take it back.
